Fourteenth Annual Lisqually Watershed FestivaL

Saturday, September 27th, 2003

Nisqually National Wildlife Refuge Free Admission! All Day! Events from 10am – 5pm

Main Stage

10am	Opening Ceremonies (South Sound Tribal Welcome)	1pm	Fiddlehead (Celtic Music)
10:15am	Nordic Exposure (Scandinavian Folk Music)	2pm	Birds of Prey (Raptors of the Watershed)
11am	The Reptile Man (Protecting Reptiles Through Education)	3pm	The EnviroChallenger (Lessons on Environmental Responsibility)
12pm	Teddy Roosevelt (A Visit from the President)	4pm	Mud Bay Stompers (Old Time Jug Band Music)

 Walks & Tours

10:30am	Birds of the Nisqually Delta	1:30pm	Nisqually Reach Nature Center
11am	Birds of the Nisqually Delta	2pm	Nisqually Delta Natural History
1pm	Medicine Creek Treaty Tree	3pm	Nisqually Reach Nature Center

Hourly watershed critter parades

featuring The Red Salmon Tent and Fin, the Wild Olympic Salmon

Explore watersheds from a salmon's perspective

Nisqually Salmon Bake • Storytelling Tent • Nisqually Arts & Crafts Kids Activities • Nisqually Reach Nature Center Open House 11am-6pm Treasure Hunt • Educational Displays • And Much More!

produced in cooperation with

Nisqually Watershed Festival is part of Washington WaterWeeks For more information, call (360) 407-6783

